

Notice of Allowance of Account.

ESTATE OF JOHN E. HARRIS
STATE OF VERMONT, District of Caledonia, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Caledonia, do hereby give notice to all persons interested in the estate of John E. Harris, late of Danville, in said district, deceased, that the 22nd day of April next for examining and allowing the account of said estate, and for a decree of the residue of said estate to the lawful claimants of the same, and for the payment of public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested in said estate by publishing this order three weeks successively previous to the day assigned, in the Caledonian, a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury in said district.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury in said district, on the day assigned, then and there to contest the allowance of said account if you see cause, and to establish your right as heirs, legatees and lawful claimants to said residue.

Given under my hand this 1st day of April, A. D. 1916.

WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

Order of Notice Will

ESTATE OF CYNTHIA LOIS IDE
STATE OF VERMONT, District of Caledonia, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Caledonia, do hereby give notice to all persons interested in the estate of Cynthia Lois Ide, late of St. Johnsbury, in said district, deceased, that the 22nd day of April next for examining and allowing the account of said estate, and for a decree of the residue of said estate to the lawful claimants of the same, and for the payment of public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested in said estate by publishing this order three weeks successively previous to the day assigned, in the Caledonian, a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury in said district.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury in said district, on the day assigned, then and there to contest the allowance of said account if you see cause, and to establish your right as heirs, legatees and lawful claimants to said residue.

Given under my hand this 1st day of April, A. D. 1916.

WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

Notice of Allowance of Account.

ESTATE OF CHARLES E. RANNEY
STATE OF VERMONT, District of Caledonia, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Caledonia, do hereby give notice to all persons interested in the estate of Charles E. Ranney, late of St. Johnsbury, in said district, deceased, that the 21st day of April next for examining and allowing the account of said estate, and for a decree of the residue of said estate to the lawful claimants of the same, and for the payment of public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested in said estate by publishing this order three weeks successively previous to the day assigned, in the Caledonian, a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury in said district.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury in said district, on the day assigned, then and there to contest the allowance of said account if you see cause, and to establish your right as heirs, legatees and lawful claimants to said residue.

Given under my hand, this 4th day of April, A. D. 1916.

WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

Order of Notice—Beneficial
ESTATE OF GEORGE GIBBONS
STATE OF VERMONT, District of Caledonia, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Caledonia, do hereby give notice to all persons interested in the estate of George Gibbons, late of St. Johnsbury, in said district, deceased, that the 21st day of April next for examining and allowing the account of said estate, and for a decree of the residue of said estate to the lawful claimants of the same, and for the payment of public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested in said estate by publishing this order three weeks successively previous to the day assigned, in the Caledonian, a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury in said district.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury in said district, on the day assigned, then and there to contest the allowance of said account if you see cause, and to establish your right as heirs, legatees and lawful claimants to said residue.

Given under my hand, this 4th day of April, A. D. 1916.

WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

Lyndonville

"Ladies Night" Observed by Lyndon Club—Installation of O. E. S. Officers.

(Mrs. E. J. Blodgett, Correspondent.)
The Lyndon club held one of their pleasant "Ladies Nights" on Tuesday evening with a good attendance. The club rooms were thrown open for cards and games and many of the ladies availed themselves of the privilege. Good music was in attendance in the Caledonian hall, with Howard Wetherbee, Ed Connell and Harley Johnson, and dancing was enjoyed. Very nice refreshments were served. Miss Maude Wetherbee catering.

Esther chapter, O. E. S., held their annual installation of officers in the Masonic hall last week, Tuesday evening. A supper was served in the dining room. The installing officer was E. L. Wells, and the marshal, Dr. F. H. Davis. The new officers are as follows: Matron, Mrs. A. D. Paige; associate matron, Mrs. Charles Hale; patron, W. H. Parker; secretary, Mrs. G. F. Ferguson; treasurer, Mrs. L. Howe; conductress, Mrs. Carl Fraser; associate conductress, Mrs. Perley Harris; chaplain, Mrs. H. J. Hubbard; Adah, Mrs. William A. Bemis; Ruth, Mrs. Harry Harvey; Esther, Mrs. H. Monford Smith; Martha, Mrs. T. V. Blaisdell; Electa, Mrs. Roger Ladd; organist, Mrs. J. C. Stephenson; ward, Mrs. Charles J. Buckley; sentinel, Charles Lewsey; marshal, Mrs. A. G. Emery.

Miss Emma Goldsmith received word last week of the sudden death of her brother-in-law, and went at once to Boston to be with her sister and family for a while.

Mrs. H. L. Parker entertained the members of the Christmas club very pleasantly at her home last Wednesday afternoon, serving a delicious supper.

What narrowly avoided becoming a serious accident took place last week Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilkie, with their niece, Irene Claudette, were driving above East Burke. They were returning from a visit to their uncle, John Lavelle, when the horse became frightened and started to run. Mrs. Wilkie was thrown against the buggy top, which struck her head so severely as to make her unconscious, and she was also thrown out of the carriage, which tipped over. Mr. Wilkie held the reins and soon succeeded in stopping the horse. Friends immediately came to the rescue and Mrs. Wilkie was taken to Dr. Root's office, where she recovered shortly and was found to be all right, except for a badly bruised arm. She was obliged to stay in bed however for most of the week.

Martin Ladd has made alterations on the second floor of his house which throw all the rooms on that floor into one apartment. This has been rented to Mr. and Mrs. John Clary, who have moved there from a tenement in the side block.

The 28th of April is the date fixed by the Orientals for their grand masquerade ball. There will be a program with music and refreshments.

The Community league held an interesting meeting and supper in the G. A. R. hall last week, Monday evening, with an attendance of about 50. The supper was served by the ladies of the Universalist society. Wetherbee's orchestra, three pieces, furnished inspiring music during the banquet. There were no out-of-town speakers at this meeting, but the time was spent in discussing a proposed new industry, that of L. M. Cree of Wheelock. The prospect is that arrangements can be made with Mr. Cree, although they are not, as yet, completed. The president, C. L. Stuart, announced that the next banquet will be on Monday evening, April 24, which will be the last until fall. The ladies of the Methodist church are expected to furnish the supper at this time.

Little Bertha Chayer ran a pin into her knee a few days ago and had to be taken to Brightlook hospital to have it removed.

The Easter sale and supper of the Congregational Ladies Aid society was held Friday. Everything was fine and served by a bevy of white-coated waiters, who were certainly assiduous in their duty, while the people in the dining room occasionally enjoyed a glimpse of Professor Mathewson and Lawyer Cook laboring over the dish pan. A three-piece orchestra, Burpee, Wetherbee and Connell added much to the joy of the occasion.

The Easter sale and supper of the ladies of the Universalist church comes on Thursday afternoon and evening. The Rev. G. F. Fortier will preach the Easter sermon at the Universalist church and Mrs. Fortier will sing. No one has as yet been engaged to take Mr. Simmons' place.

Mrs. Eldon Irvine of Stanstead, P. Q., spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson. Her friends are glad to learn that Mr. Irvine is not to be called to the front just yet, but will go first to Valcartier, the military camp near Quebec.

Mrs. Josephine Carr of Providence, R. I., has been spending a week's vacation with her sister, Mrs. H. L. Parker, returning to her school Monday.

Mrs. Everett Clifford invited the members of the Book club and a few guests to a sugar party in Mrs. Calvin Bigelow's sugar place Friday.

Mrs. A. C. MacDowell is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Rousseau, in Grand Isle.

Elmer Darling gave a luncheon party to a number of ladies Saturday which was a most enjoyable affair.

Miss Erma Webber is clerking in Willoughby's bakery at present. Mrs. Willoughby and her sister, Mrs. Huntley, are alternately staying with their mother, Mrs. Warren, who is very sick at her home in Woodville, N. H.

Mrs. Inez (Hayford) Knowlton of New Haven, Conn., is stopping for a few days with Mrs. Eliza Bigelow.

Will Bailey of East Burke is painting for U. S. Grant.

Encounter was a guest of his uncle, Frank Counter, in East Burke last week.

Mrs. William Chapman and son, Harold, of Concord, were visitors in town last week.

Miss Florence Wilkinson of White River Junction has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. L. Lyman.

Ernest Martin has moved from the side block into one of the new tenements of Frank Dresser, at the Center.

William Campbell occupies the other one. Mr. and Mrs. Dresser have moved into Mrs. Campbell's house, and will make two tenements in their own house. Miss Alice Taylor has moved from Mrs. Campbell's house into the Rev. J. W. Burghin's tenement, where she will live with her sister, Miss Sadie Morse.

Louis Lavoie has gone to Claremont, N. H., and returns today accompanied by his mother.

Johnsbury and Matilda Howe of St. Johnsbury visited their aunts, Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Giffin, last week.

Mrs. Walter Hinman of Newport, a trained nurse, is giving a series of four lectures on nursing at Mathewson house, open to members of the Lyndon Union club. The first was given Wednesday afternoon and the others will be given Wednesday evening, 29th. They are given under the auspices of the Home Economics circle.

The Union Garage and Machine company has moved its plant from Grove street to a part of the Thompson livery stable building, purchased by Frank Leach.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shearer are spending the sugar season with friends on a farm in Richmond.

Rev. and Mrs. Moore are to go to housekeeping very soon in the Methodist parsonage on Prospect street, now occupied by L. D. Hackett.

Mrs. Ward E. Noyes and son, Leighton, of Brattleboro, were guests last week of her brothers, Lonnie and Sherman Huntley.

Dr. David R. Brown was in New York last week and returned home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown. His father has recently undergone a serious operation at a New York hospital, and will remain here for a time while convalescent.

F. E. Cummings has moved into the company house recently vacated by Charles Fisher, who has moved from the house he bought of Ralph Coffran, who has moved into rooms in the side block.

Mrs. Sherburne Lang visited in Monroe, N. H., last week.

R. H. Rice has gone to live in Springfield, Mass., where he now has a son and daughter living.

The Saturday Night class held the third of their millinery lessons last week with Miss Colton as teacher. The Misses Riley and Oullette were hostesses. There will be one more lesson in millinery next Saturday evening.

There will be a meeting of the Sun-set league and all interested in base ball Friday evening of this week to discuss plans for the coming season.

Holy Week is being observed by the Catholic and Episcopal churches as usual. At the Congregational church meetings are held every evening of the week.

Pliny Burns, who has been laid off for several weeks with the grip, is back at his work on the railroad.

Mrs. Marcia Sandstrom and daughter of East Burke were visitors in town last week.

Mrs. J. S. Farmer and son were with her sister, Mrs. A. C. Burns, in West Burke last week.

Mrs. J. F. Jock is at home from Portland, Me., where she was called by the illness of her sister, Alice Meserve. Mr. and Mrs. Milford Long visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cass, in East Burke last week.

Members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges attended union service of all the churches in the Universalist church Sunday evening. Music was by the Methodist choir. The theme of the sermon was "The Unity of the Spirit."

Mrs. Fred Wilcox of West Lebanon, N. H., was in town last week.

Mrs. Fred Stowell and two daughters, Muriel and Mildred, from White River Junction, called on friends in town last week.

Mrs. Charles Murphy has been in Springfield, Mass., for a short time.

E. S. Brigham, state commissioner of agriculture, Dean Hills of the university of Vermont and G. T. Chaffee of Rutland, trustees of the Vail School of Agriculture, were in town last week on business.

Wesley Steele of St. Johnsbury was with his uncle, H. C. Wilson, a few days last week.

Frank Beauregard has finished work in James Robinson's barber shop and gone to St. Johnsbury to work.

Among recent visitors to Boston were Willis Conner, Morton Thomas, Russell Griswold, Roger Ladd and Edwin Daniels.

Mrs. William Downer is spending two weeks with her mother in Waterford.

George Whitney of Bellows Falls was a recent visitor here on business.

The Girls' Glee club of Lyndon institute, which is under the direction of Miss Redmond, and Miss Mabel Durgan's gymnasium classes are planning to give a concert and exhibition in Music hall the first of next month.

Miss Blanche Spaulding spent Sunday at her home in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Fanny Cheney Smith is substituting in the graded school in the place of Miss Ida Batchelder, who is in very poor health at her home in Middlesex.

Mrs. Leon H. Curtice was recently called to Newport by the illness of her mother.

Mrs. E. G. French of Hardwick has been a guest of M. S. Stevens.

Dorlan Leavitt of Newport is working at the Pleasant View cafe and boarding at James Shilleto's.

There was an unusual large attendance at the regular meeting of Green Mountain Grange, No. 1, which was held Saturday evening, and all of the officers were present. In compliance with an invitation recently extended the ladies degree team of Wide Awake Grange, No. 66, were present and in a very pleasing manner conferred the third and fourth degrees on two candidates. Other visiting members to the number of 27, from the same Grange were present, among whom were Worthy State Lecturer, E. H. Hallett, Worthy Master E. G. Learned, and Worthy Overseer, A. C. Underwood. Suggestions for the "Good of the Order" were responded to by Brothers E. G. Learned, E. H. Hallett, A. C. Underwood, E. M. Massey and A. H. Olcott. At the close of the meeting the following program was rendered, after which refreshments of sugar and doughnuts were served: Song, "Sweet Cider Time, When You Are Mine," Gertrude McLaughlin, Kathleen Chaffee; reading, Mary Olcott; recitation, "Sunshine," Helen Carruthers; quotations from Shakespeare, by eight members; discussion, "Are Farmers More Honest Than Men In Other Occupations, Taken As A Whole?" speakers, A. H. Olcott, C. I. Hall; piano solo, Dorothy Farnham; reading, Elbert Gallagher; discussion, "Is the Farmer Who is Always Complaining of his Work and Hard Times a Hindrance to His Profession?" speakers, E. M. Massey, W. J. Henderson, E. H. Hallett; reading, "The Ant and the Cricket," Ernest Bedard; song, "America," by Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Petty of St. Johnsbury were week-end guests of her aunt, Mrs. George Morrill, and family.

Miss Martha Hill, who was called to Hyde Park, Mass., several weeks ago on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. George Hanscom, returned home Friday.

There will be an Easter service at the Methodist church next Sunday. Special music will be furnished by the choir from the M. E. church at Lyndon. There will be no evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Massey of North Danville visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Massey, and family Sunday. Merrill Gray, who has been at Fort Myers, Fla., the past winter, is at the home of his mother, Mrs. Don Washburn.

A. B. Pringle received word last week that his only sister, Mrs. Jennie Whipple of Ewingsburg, Va., had suffered a shock. She is 77 years of age and her recovery is doubtful.

Mrs. Whipple will be remembered by a good many in the southern part of the county as she taught there several years before going to Virginia.

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church will give a sugar party at George Morrill's sugar camp next Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. John Lebaureau of Cookshire, P. Q., has been the guest of Mrs. Mary Hallett and other old friends in the village the past week.

Mrs. John Drew and daughters, who have been visiting her old home in Milan, P. Q., returned home Saturday.

Edgar Carpenter of New York city has been the guest of his cousin, Albert Evans, and family.

Floy Jenness of St. Johnsbury is assisting in B. A. Farnham's store during the absence of Leo Eastman.

The Sunday school services at the M. E. church are to be held at 1:30 and the preaching service at 2:30, instead of 2 o'clock as reported last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harvey have rented the upper tenement in Thomas Rickaby's house and will move there in about two weeks.

Mrs. W. C. Hall goes next Saturday to Waterville, P. Q., to spend a few weeks with her sister and family.

Miss Ella McLaughlin of St. Johnsbury spent the week-end with her brother, B. A. McLaughlin, and family.

Mrs. Will Astle of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Mrs. A. H. Olcott one day last week.

Mrs. Robert Kirk of Monticott, New Ontario, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jennie Forsythe, on her way to her old home in Manchester, N. H.

Tyler Thomas, who has been with friends in Walden for some time is visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Johnson and family.

John Moore of Detroit, Mich., who has been visiting his daughter, Miss Grace Clement, was taken ill and is now in the St. Johnsbury hospital.

Mrs. Mary Hallett was the guest of Mrs. A. N. Drew of Arlington one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Fay have been quite sick the past week with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Turner of St. Johnsbury visited her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis, on Sunday.

Little Avis Brooks found the first hepaticas last Sunday that have been seen this season.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its monthly meeting next Friday afternoon with Mrs. Ellen Granger.

NORTH DANVILLE
(Alice P. Massey, Correspondent.)
Mrs. Alice Davidson visited at Ora Drew's Thursday.

Elias Anderson is working at James Johnson's.

Mrs. Merton Hall, who has been sick the past week is better.

Ethel Gadapee, who has been sick, is back at her work at Mrs. Alice Chickering's.

Mrs. Dick Langmaid is sick in bed with grip.

Doris Gadapee has not been as well the past week.

Florence Clifford has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. C. C. Massey, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tilden visited their mother, Mrs. Tilden, at the St. Johnsbury hospital Tuesday. She still remains critically ill.

Mrs. Mary Chamberlain is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Varum.

Miss Edith Vance was at Mrs. C. C. Massey's sewing Tuesday.

Miss Abbie Comstock is visiting at the home of V. V. Vance.

The Mountain school is closed. Miss Dorothy Mears returns to her school at Johnson Saturday.

Most of the schools opened Monday for the spring term.

J. M. Goodwin of Woodsville visited his son, Horace Goodwin, the first of the week.

George Simpson and Delbert Celley commenced work in the scale factory Monday.

H. M. Clark has been sick the past week.

Miss Berta Parker has returned home from East Burke where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Burt Baker.

Miss Eva Ward has been visiting her uncle, Bert Ward, and grandmother, Mrs. Olive Ward.

The first and second degrees were conferred upon three new candidates at the Grange meeting Friday.

Hot sugar, doughnuts and pickles were served.

J. E. Parker is quite ill at his home. There will be a reception for the Rev. and Mrs. Sidney Aldrich at the church vestry Wednesday evening to which everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Fleming and children of St. Johnsbury visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Gadapee, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Noll of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emmons.

Ethel Emmons spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Legendre, at St. Johnsbury.

William Hamilton came Saturday from his school at Chicago to spend his vacation.

Florence Clement of Lyndon spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Clement.

About 125 attended the sugar party at Charles Joyce's Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Massey spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Massey, at St. Johnsbury Center.

Charles Drew, who has been in Brightlook hospital the past week with quinsy sore came home the first of the week.

WATERFORD
(Mrs. A. M. Sunbury, Correspondent.)
Mrs. Marshall Richardson and Mrs.

Fitzgerald of West Littleton were recent guests of Mrs. George Bedell.

Mr. Terrill of Jericho, the cow-tester, was here last week.

Mrs. Cynthia Nelson has gone to Victory and will stop with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Jones, for a few months.

The body of Mrs. Frank Carpenter of St. Johnsbury, formerly of this town, was brought here Sunday and was buried beside her husband who died here a few years ago.

WEST WATERFORD
(Mrs. E. O. Blodgett, Correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blodgett buried their infant daughter, aged 12 days, April 11. The little child only weighed 2½ pounds. It was a wonder that it lived as long as it did.

Clarence and Everett Chandler visited at St. Johnsbury Friday and Saturday.

FINAL NOTICE

THE NEXT EDITION OF THE TELEPHONE DIRECTORY CLOSING ON

APRIL 25th, 1916

If you desire to have your name appear in this book, you must give your order for telephone service AT ONCE.

285 New Subscribers Added Since January 1st, 1916

Call up our Local Manager in your town, free of charge, and an Agent will be sent to see you.

PASSUMPSIC TELEPHONE COMPANY

WHERE TO BUY SOCONY KEROSENE OIL

These dealers carry Socony Kerosene, the Standard Oil Co. of New York's best grade of refined oil.

- BARNE
Glick 1st Bros.
Giffman, L. E.
- CONCORD
Lunney, D. S.
- DANVILLE
Dole, N. A.
Gills, J. W.
- NORTH DANVILLE
Weeks, J. P.
- EAST BARNET
Gibb, Albert J.
Roberts, George A.
- SUTTON
Craig, F. W.
- WHEELLOCK
Brown, G. A.
- WEST BURKE
Brookway, A. W.
Porter, Fred
Salmon, Jacob
- BATH, N. H.
Syme, B. A.
- EAST RYEGATE
Wallace, Geo.
- GROTON
Blanchard, L. S.
Eastman, B. S.
Ricker, E. D.
Welch, G. S.
- HAVERHILL, N. H.
Atkins, W. G.
Page & Son, W. H.
Randall, M. H.
- McINDOES
Goodrich, J. H.
Montgomery, E. C. C.
- MONROE, N. H.
Fraser, W. J.
- NEWBURY
Hale & Son, J. B.
Hubbard, H. W.
- NORTH HAVERHILL, N. H.
Oryen & Moore
Kimball Bros.
- RYEGATE
Douglas, J. A.
McLam, W. J.
- SWIFTWATER, N. H.
Wells, F. P.
- SOUTH RYEGATE
Mason, F. F.
Smith & Co.
Terry, Mabel
- SOUTH NEWBURY
Hildreth, F. D. W.

- WOODSVILLE, N. H.
Artis, F.
Davison, C. N.
Lampher Est., Geo. L.
Miller, L. W.
- WELLS RIVER
Butson, John
Clark, S. E.
Howard, V. E.
- CABOT
Rogers & Currier
Voddy, S. C.
- SOUTH CABOT
Hoy, R. B.
- CRAFTSBURY
Goodwin, F. H.
Ker, P. C.
Levitt, J. D.
Savoy & Lather
- NORTH CRAFTSBURY
Cole, S. S.
Dunn, F. B.
Keeler & Farrar
- EAST CRAFTSBURY
Harriman, H. Z.
- EAST CALAIS
Hatch & Burnham
- GREENSBORO BEND
Collins, E. R.
Davis & Son, B. O.
- GREENSBORO
Cuthbertson Bros.
Wiley, B. H.
- HARDWICK
Berry & Frechette
Carr, I. H.
Davis, C. R.
Libbey, H. C.
Slayton, P. H.
Titus, S. F.
Tibbey, H. C.
- EAST HARDWICK
Battles, R. E.
Montgomery, A. R.</